Mission

Immaculate Conception Catholic School is a family oriented school, preparing students to become Active Christians, Responsible Citizens, Critical Thinkers, and Positive Thinkers with the goal of becoming selfless leaders in the community and to live as disciples of Jesus Christ.

Theme

Soaring to Heaven and Success

Faculty & Staff

Every Friday, faculty and staff get together for meetings, religious trainings and professional development opportunities. Also, every 2 weeks teachers get together in their teams to collaborate in regards to curriculum, strategies, objectives and overall well-being.

Principal

Once a month, the principal travels to Tucson for meetings, professional development and collaboration with all Diocese of Tucson principals. Twice a month, principals have zoom meetings with the superintendent. Once a month, the principal meets with the school's advisory board and the Parish Finance Board to discuss budget, plans and improvements. Meetings with parish ministry and Finance included.

Looking ahead:

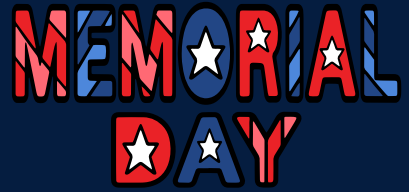

August

- *August 12 orientation
- *August 13 first full day of school

Have a safe and blessed summer vacation.
